MOLOTOV DEMANDS TEN BILLIONS FROM GERMANY

G.O.P. WANTS UN INFORMED OF LOAN PLANS

Republicans Also Want Hoover Named To Direct Relief in Two Countries.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 17 — Fresh Republican proposals arose today that President Truman (1) officially report his Greek-Turkey aid program to the United Nations and (2) designate Herbert Hoover to direct relief activities in the two countries.

As congress awaited a legislative blueprint on the President's program to spend $400,000,000 in bolstering the Mediterranean nations against threats of Communism Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-N J), voiced concern at any "by-passing" of the UN. He said he thinks a "frank statement" of American intentions should be made directly to the international organization.

At the same time, Senator Moore (R-Okla), suggested that Hoover, who recently completed a European food survey, be named to direct relief and rehabilitation expenditures which will go along with the limited military aid Mr. Truman promised the two countries

Most members of congress, meanwhile, awaited with mounting interest that imminent return of Paul Porter from his economic mission to Greece and of ambassadors Lincoln Mac Veagh and Edwin C. Wilson from Athens and Ankara, respectively.

Almost simultaneously with word that the former OPA chief had left for home yesterday to submit his findings to Mr. Truman, diplomatic officials disclosed that the two envoys also were ordered back for consultations.

Porter seemed certain to be called before congressional committees for direct questioning on data which he said at Athens should provide this country "with the factual basis for further defining its policy in regard to Greece."

It appeared likely that Mac Veagh and Wilson also would be invited to testify in line with the growing congressional desire for all possible information behind the historic foreign policy shift.

In the senate, Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.), of the foreign relations committee continued to compile questions on all phases of the program to be put to top ranking government officials at public hearings.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), announced that he wants to ask military leaders what they consider to be the chances of war with Russia if the United States carries out its plan in the Mediterranean. Taft said he thinks such questions will have to be answered behind closed doors.

Spot Liquor Check Reveals Few Law Violations in Cafes

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 17 — Liquor enforcement agents made a statewide "spot check" of drinking spots over the weekend, it was disclosed today, but first returns showed little actual law violation

Enforcement Chief William J. Kelch, who toured Youngstown, Warren, Girard, and Niles with State Liquor Director Stanley B. Cofall, said they found no slot machines at all in the 53 places they visited.

"We found a few punchboards and told the people to tear them up," he said. He indicated no further action would be taken in these cases.

Some of the spots he and Cofall visited were open after closing hours for sale of liquor, he said, but were not selling and therefore not violating the law Reports from other parts of the state are expected later today.

He said he and Cofall checked 21 places in Warren, 16 in Youngstown, nine in Niles, and seven in Girard Kelch was in charge of one of eight groups of inspectors, Cofall another.

Last night at Cleveland, Cofall reported finding 11 bottles of whisky lacking state stamps in one place and two in another, but added "in both instances the cartons containing the bottles bore the proper stamps.

The statewide checks started Thursday night, when Kelch himself checked Toledo night spots with William Galayda, Toledo agent in charge.

Margaret Truman Wins Praise After Singing Debut in Detroit

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 17—Margaret Truman, 23-year-old daughter of the President, today looked back on a "big thrill"—her triumphant debut as soprano soloist with the Detroit symphony orchestra.

A host of tributes, including high praise from Conductor Karl Krueger, greeted the youthful coloratura's appearance last night on a coast-to-coast broadcast.

She planned to return to Washington today with her singing teacher, Mrs. Margaret Armstrong Strickler, and "rest before making any plans."

Krueger termed the young blond singer a "real trouper," praising the ease with which she surmounted pressure built up by such a prominent debut, last week's postponement of the performance due to laryngitis, nerve-wearing rehearsals and her position as daughter of the President.

Praised by Conductor

"I am very proud to have had a share in launching a career I am sure will be successful and distinguished," Krueger said.

Mrs Strickler declared herself "completely satisfied" with the performance of her protege, and added, "I think she's going places."

The President was quick to telephone congratulations to his daughter from Key West, Fla., where he is resting According to Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, the President "listened with pleasure" and "enjoyed the whole program"

Mrs Truman, Margaret's mother, was equally enthusiastic Miss Jane Lingo, a close friend of Miss Truman, described Mrs. Truman as "very, very pleased" with her daughter's debut.

Praise came, too, from the President's 94-year-old mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman, who is convalescing from a hip injury at her home in Grandview, Mo. She commented on her granddaughter's "fine voice" after listening to the broadcast with relatives.

15 Million Listeners

Mid-way in the program, which was broadcast over ABC to an estimated 15,000,000 listeners, she rose with considerable poise and sang "Cielito Lindo" by Padilla, then David's difficult "Charmant Oiseau" from the opera "Pearl of Brazil" and concluded with a request from her father, "The Last Rose of Summer."

Detroit music critics commented that Miss Truman's voice "was true and well-controlled," but noted "one or two lapses from pitch." They agreed that her talent was evident despite her inexperience.

As for Miss-Truman herself, she considered it a "big thrill," and said she enjoyed every minute of it."

An authoritative source set Miss Truman's fee for the concert at "at least $1,000, perhaps $1,500." The exact sum, he said, would probably be decided upon today.

INSURANCE AGENTS ON STRIKE IN OHIO

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 17—Members of the CIO United Office Workers union employed by Monumental Life Insurance Co struck to enforce demands for a guaranteed $50 weekly minimum wage declaring their strike was aimed at offices in ten Ohio cities.

William B. Heath, chairman of a local strike committee, said early reports showed agents were on strike in Cleveland and Akron

The manager of the company's Cincinnati office reported ten agents failed to report for work Union agents also set up picket lines in Columbus, where 20 are employed.

Other Ohio offices are located in Columbus, Youngstown, Toledo, Dayton, Newark, Zanesville and Canton. Heath said about 185 agents are employed in this state.

The strike also was scheduled to begin today in Michigan and Missouri, with the union's national office in New York directing the walkout.

Agents now work on a straight commission basis.

In Baltimore, home office of the company, President L Rock said last night the union's demand was unreasonable and that a strike would seriously inconvenience about 275,000 policy holders in Ohio.

HURRICANE KILLS 11 IN BRITISH ISLES

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 17 — A swirling hurricane that killed 11 persons and did millions of dollars in property destruction blew itself out today over flooded and snowbound Britain.

The air ministry forecast milder weather today but with "considerable rains and gales" tomorrow or later.

Winds sweeping in from the Atlantic at a velocity of 96 miles an hour uprooted trees, deroofed buildings, wrecked houses and churned into perilous cauldrons the worst floods in more than half a century.

Five of the dead were killed under collapsing houses. A falling pipe killed the sixth, two school girls were crushed to death in a bus struck by a falling tree and another died of head injuries after being bowled over in the street. Two cyclists were killed by falling trees.

Across flooded southern England, meanwhile, thousands of families were marooned in their homes. Scores of highways were cut and some branch railway lines were out of service.

Mountainous snow drifts still paralysed transportation in northern England and Scotland.

The storm harrassed shipping all around Britain. An unknown vessel was reported in distress 35 miles off the southeastern coast.

OLD GRUDGE ENDS IN MURDER AND SUICIDE

By The Associated Press

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., March 17—An elderly landowner who had carried a grudge for 15 years killed Superior Court Judge C. Everett Thompson, 65, last night and then committed suicide, Police Chief Walter Spence said.

Spence identified the slayer as George Pritchard, about 70, of Elizabeth City, who, he said, considered all lawyers his enemies.

Thompson was killed as he sat reading with his wife in the living room of their home here. He was sitting about a foot from the window when, Spence said, Pritchard pressed a shotgun against the screen and fired.

Spence said Pritchard had emptied the remaining charge of shotgun into his stomach, dying a few minutes later.

Pritchard's grudge against Thompson and other Elizabeth City lawyers stemmed from a civil law suit 15 years ago over the title of some lands, Spence said Pritchard lost the case. Thompson was one of the attorneys opposing him.

PROPOSES UN RULE OF JAPAN

MacArthur Recommends End of Military Control Within Short Time.

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, March 17 — General MacArthur today advocated an early end of the military occupation of Japan and elimination of Allied headquarters' position under a formal peace treaty on which negotiations should begin "as soon as possible."

"Control and guidance" of Japan's democratization should then continue under supervision of the United Nations, MacArthur told correspondents in his first on-the-record press conference since early in the war.

He declined to specify when he thought peace negotiations should begin, but indicated he believed it should be within a matter of months at the longest. He likewise declined to speculate on the probable length of additional supervision.

Must Meet Test

MacArthur said if the United Nations cannot provide the mild control needed for Japan, the UN cannot meet any challenge.

Other points made by MacArthur during questioning at the conclusion of a press club luncheon:

1. The occupation has nearly completed its constructive functions. The first phase—demilitarization—has ended "The political phase is approaching such completion as is possible under occupation." The third phase—economic—cannot be settled by occupation authorities.

2. "Japan is still economically blockaded by the Allied powers." Final settlement of this problem is possible only with a peace treaty. Trade must be in the hands of private traders.

3. "Japan today understands as thoroughly as any nation that war does not pay. Her spiritual revolution probably was the greatest the world has ever known."

4. Japan has lost her fuedalistic concepts and has come to recognize the "dignity of man." "I don't by that mean to say this thing called democracy has been accomplished. The process of democratization is one of continual flux. It takes years. But insofar as you can lay down the framework, it already is accomplished. There is little more except to watch, control and guide x x x. I believe sincerely and absolutely" that individual freedom "is here to stay."

Marion Schools Closed As Flu Gains in City

The Marion city schools were closed at noon today to remain closed for the entire week due to the large increase in absences over last week from influenza and colds. Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner, was contacted by school officials and he recommended that the schools be shut down. Announcement of the closing was made by E. E. Holt, superintendent.

Radnor school in Delaware county closed this morning shortly after opening when 118 pupils were reported absent with flu out of a total enrollment of 300. Officials there reported the school would remain closed Tuesday and would resume classes Wednesday to determine whether or not they will carry on.

Green Camp Reopens

A Marion county school, Green Camp, which dispensed with classes last Thursday and Friday, reopened this morning and the attendance was reported to be better. It was closed last week due largely to the absence of members of the faculty. However, today, the entire faculty is present, with the absence among the pupils not more than 10 per cent.

In the city schools, Mr. Holt, reported 1,602 pupils absent out of the total enrollment of 5,725, which is 27.9 per cent. Also absent besides this number are 15 teachers from the various schools, one principal, two janitors. A number of others who reported at school should be home, he said.

County Situation Unchanged

D T. Mills, superintendent of county schools, reported not much change in the county situation with the absence at most schools a little more than average. Pleasant township and Prospect schools have reported the largest absences, both over 15 per cent.

With the closing of schools, all school activities will be suspended. A P.-T. A. meeting which was to have been held Tuesday night at Pearl Street school, has been canceled, Mrs. H. R. Fetter, publicity chairman, announced

The flu absence situation at St Mary Parochial school was unknown today as it is a holiday for the pupils there.

PUTS BAN ON MINE STRIKE

March 31 Walkout Will Cost Union $2,800,000 by Court Action.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 17—The supreme court barred the door today against another coal miners' walkout March 31 — unless the miners are willing to pay $2,800,000 for the privilege.

It did this by making effective on March 20 orders it issued 10 days ago when it upheld a U. S. district court's conviction of John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers for contempt of court.

The order originally was to go into effect March 31 with Lewis allowed five days thereafter to comply with it. Attorney General Tom C. Clark asked the court to set an earlier date. He said there was danger the 400,000 miners might quit work March 31, as they are now under instructions from Lewis to work only until then.

In other actions today, the court:

1. In effect held that the government can fire an employe who takes part in "communist front" activities.

2. Ruled that loans from the farm credit administration must be repaid before other creditors collect from the estate of the borrowing farmer.

3. Refused to review a contention by C. D. Beck of Sidney, O., that constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech permitted him to tell his employes a union was a "racket." The national labor relations board had ruled it was an unfair labor practice barred by the Wagner act.

Lawyer Raises Issue

The issue as to the government's right to fire for association with Communist groups was raised by Morton Friedman, now a New York lawyer.

He was ousted from a job with the war manpower commission on grounds he was active with the American Peace Mobilization which the civil service commission decided was formed under

WANT GI BONDS CASHED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 17—Republican reluctance to force action on a pending house bill to cash GI terminal pay bonds spurred reports today that G O.P. members soon will offer their own proposal. It may apply the first $2,000,000,000 of any fund set aside for debt reduction to payment of the bonds immediately.

Marion To Get Next Meeting Of Ohio State Loop Officials

The Ohio State baseball league held its first meeting of 1947 at Zane hotel in Zanesville yesterday afternoon. W. Dexter Hazen, Marion club president, attended.

The next league meeting, which had been scheduled for Newark, will be held in Marion a few weeks before the opening of the season. Newark will have the meeting following and plans to dedicate its new ball park at that time.

The most important change made in league rules involved the time when teams must be cut down and when they will be able to go back to a strength of 20 men. Formerly they had to be cut down 20 days after the season opened and could not make additions until 20 days before the closing of the season. The time allowed under the new set-up is 20 days.

Light Rule Changed

Another change came as a result of a dispute in Richmond last year. Field lights can now be turned on at the start of any half inning.

All members of the eight-team league were represented and training schedules and locations of camps was discussed. Plans were made for hotel reservations when the clubs are on the road.

Frank M. Colley, league president, resided.

Springfield was represented by Earl Garst, president, and Bob Ireland, secretary-treasurer. The team which has a working agreement with the New York Giants will train at the Giant camp in Lakewood, N. J.

Business manager Ralph Peters represented the Zanesville Dodgers. Their club will train in Pensacola, Fla.

Lima will train in Celina, O., because its park is closed for repairs Ray Laabe, president, and Merele "Lefty" Settlemire, manager attended the meeting.

To Join New League

Dayton was represented by Ival Goodman, manager, and Dr Warren R. Bradford, president. The club announced yesterday that it will drop from this league at the end of the season to enter the Ohio-Michigan league which is being formed. It will be a class A league and other cities planning to have outfits in it are Akron, Youngstown, Canton, Flint, Saginaw, Jackson, and Lansing. Another announcement was that Goodman now owns half interest in the team.

Muncie, newest member of the loop, was represented by John Hartman, president, and Jack Myers, business manager. They will train at home.

Richmond also will train at home. Jim Hooey, business manager attended the meeting.

Another team which prefers its home grounds for pre-season conditioning is the Newark Browns. Dr. Perkins represented that city at the meeting. Marion also will train at home.

Dates for opening of spring training will vary between April 1 and April 15.

ASKS PAYMENT OVER 20 YEARS

Place Request for Reparations Before Council of Foreign Ministers.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 17—Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov demanded of the foreign ministers' conference today a 20-year reparation payment plans by which Germany would pay the Soviet Union $10,000,000,000.

Molotov asked for a four-power control of the Ruhr and immediate cancellation of the American-British zonal fusion.

The Russian diplomat demanded also the removal from Germany of capital goods such as factories for reparations, a division of German assets held abroad and reparations from current production. He said the 20-year payment period should date from the signing of the Potsdam agreement in 1945.

Molotov said the agreed level of German production in steel should be raised from 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 tons annually to provide for reparations payment.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was reported to have drafted a letter to Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov rejecting Molotov's proposal for a special conference on China. Bevin took a stand similar to Marshall's but in addition was reported to have stressed that Britain viewed the Chinese matter was primarily between the United States and Russia.

Some diplomats said Bevin's reported letter showed a British trend toward a secondary role in issues on hich she could gracefully seek a neutral line.

Role for Smaller Nations

In a meeting of deputy foreign ministers the United States launched a plea for wider participation by smaller nations in drafting the peace for Germany. Ambassador Robert Murphy urged a formula that would admit 26 countries, instead of the four powers and 18 smaller countries heretofore invited to present their views to the deputies at London. Murphy's list added Mexico, Bolivia, Iran and the Philippines.

The second week of meetings here — to prepare peace treaties with Germany and Austria—promised to speed up the work considerably. These events were in prospect:

First: The conference was scheduled to buckle down today to the real issues—economic unity and reparations—which have divided the western powers and the Soviet Union in Germany almost since the war's end.

Second: This is about the time in such Moscow conferences that Stalin usually invites each visiting foreign minister to call for a talk.

Third: Bevin was reported due to make a reply in the same vein as Marshall's to Molotov's proposal for talks on China under the Big Three's Moscow agreement of December, 1945. Molotov then was expected to say whether he was willing to accept the proposition that the three should merely exchange reports on execution of their obligations under that agreement.

Fourth: The foreign ministers' deputies discussing Austria were confronted with the necessity of breaking a deadlock over Albania if any machinery was to be set up for informing smaller nations of the conference's work on Germany in time to do them any good. Russia holds that Albania must be included in any committee of small-nation envoys organized here; Britain and the U. S. so far have turned down this proposal.

RUBBER UNION SET TO STRIKE

100,000 Ready To Walk Out Against Big Four Companies in Akron.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 17—Approximately 100,000 members of the CIO United Rubber Workers in plants of the "Big Four" rubber companies will strike next Sunday at midnight unless their demands for a wage increase are granted, it was announced today by union president L. S. Buckmaster.

The "Big Four" are Goodyear, Goodrich, Firestone and U. S. Rubber.

Nearly half the employes involved in the wage dispute are employed in Akron, O., and the remainder in other parts of the nation. The union has been demanding since last fall a wage increase of 26 cents an hour. The average hourly rate in the Akron area is $1.34.

Set Deadline

Buckmaster said the union's policy committee had set the strike deadline after a stalemate in negotiations with company representatives. Strike votes, averaging more than 90 per cent, have been taken in plants of the Big Four, and the cooling off period has expired.

The union scaled its demands down to 16 cents an hour, said the union president, and the companies offered 10 cents. Buckmaster termed the 10 cents inadequate to meet rising costs of living.

L. M. Buckingham, attorney for the Big Four, said a company offer of a wage increase of 10 cents an hour was "a fair offer, and they ought to accept it. They have set a strike deadline and we think that is a mistake on their part."

The attorney said that for the year from March 2, 1946, to March 2, 1947, a wage increase of 18½ cents an hour was granted, with 12 cents retroactive to Nov. 1, 1945.

Equivalent to 22½ Cents

"That was the equivalent of 22½ cents an hour for the year from March to March," he continued, "and no other mass production industry in the United States did as much. Part of this increase was to take care of a probable increase in the cost of living, and we have asked the union to consider this factor, but they have declined.

"We also proposed to permit either party to reopen the wage issue at any time after six months," said Buckingham.

Court Holds Government Can Fire "Sympathizers"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 17—The supreme court today in effect upheld the right of the civil service commission to fire a government employe on grounds he is a Communist sympathizer.

The court refused to review protests by Morton Friedman, who was ousted from a job with the war manpower commission by order of the civil service commission. The refusal leaves in effect rulings by lower federal courts which upheld the commission's order.

Friedman in appealing to the supreme court said he was fired as a result of a "witch hunt" which he stated "is now proceeding in the government service and elsewhere."

TOY BOMB KILLS ONE AND MAIMS ANOTHER

By The Associated Press

COLLEGE CORNER, O., March 17—Keith Williams, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams Sr., living near Bath, Ind., died late last night from injuries received in the explosion of a "toy bomb."

Robert Balser, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Balser, also living near Bath, and whose right arm was mangled in the accident, was said today to be in fair condition. The boys were removed to a hospital at Hamilton, O., following the explosion.

Roy Gilmore, a deputy sheriff of Union county, Ind., said the boys told him they were playing with the explosive in the belief it was a toy bomb and harmless. He said they were at the Balser home at the time.

Both boys were students at Union High school, which is located on the Ohio-Indiana line, half of it being in each state.

Best News On Living Costs Is That They're Standing Still

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, March 17 — The best that can be said for living costs is that they are just about standing still.

They remain away up there, close to a record high. They are about 53 per cent higher than before the war.

James Marlow

The record was reached in December, 1946, when they were 53.3 per cent higher than prewar costs. These are all government figures.

So there's been a slight drop, but a very slight one.

By living costs, in general, is meant the prices people pay for the things they need to live, like food, rent, clothing, laundry, goods.

Reports One Month Late

The government's bureau of labor statistics gathers the figures but reports them a month late.

Detailed figures for March won't be reported until late in April. Detailed figures for February won't be reported until late this month.

But last night the bureau issued an estimate of what living costs were up to Feb. 15.

So the figures used here are from the bureau and, since they include the estimate, are the latest available.

Businessmen and a lot of congressmen proclaimed last year:

1. If OPA is wiped out, American business once more will be back on a basis of "free enterprise."

2. When that happens and because of the resulting competition, prices soon will go down.

Suspended in July

OPA was suspended for a month last July. Then it was given new life for a while.

Then in mid-October OPA controls on meat—food is a big item in figuring out average living costs—were knocked off.

When OPA started to wobble and finally flattened out, living costs started to soar until they reached an all-time high in December.

As noted, there's ben a very slight decrease since then.

In order to show how living costs have climbed since the war started, the bureau of labor statistics had to choose some prewar period as a basis of comparison. It chose 1935-39.

Here's what the figures show:

By June, 1946, living costs had risen only 33.3 per cent over 1935-39. By December, 1946 — with OPA all but dead — they had soared to 53.3 per cent over 1935-39.

By Feb. 1947—as noted—they had dropped from the 53.3 per cent peak of last December to 53 per cent.

The bureau said last night food prices for the 30 days ending Feb. 15 had dropped about ¾ of 1 per cent from the previous month.

LATE 1947 EASING IN STEEL PRICES SEEN

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 17—Prices in the steel markets continue strong, but prospects for late 1947 indicate a probable "easing in quotations," said the magazine Steel today.

Buoyancy now characterizes the metallics markets, but as steel production continues at record peace-time levels, increasing attention is being given to coming months, said the publication.

"Generally, demand-supply balance is expected to be struck in most steel products by midsummer," flat-rolled products being one outstanding exception, Steel continued.

Steel sellers are "preparing for intensive sales competition after mid-year," which raises speculation over future prices, "and some observers are expressing the view an easing in quotations would not be altogether surprising," said Steel.

Steelmaking operations were at the highest point since May, 1945, after a gain of two points to 95 per cent of rated capacity.

In New England operations gained four points to 94 per cent, Cleveland three to 94, Detroit three to 90, Pittsburgh two to 96.5, Buffalo two to 9.05, Chicago one to 94 and Youngstown one to 91. Other districts were unchanged.

Church at Harpster Plans Repair Program

The official board of Harpster Community Methodist church has made plans for extensive repairs and improvement of the church building.

This will consist of reroofing, the installation of a new heating system, basement improvement, redecorating and other inside changes, at an estimated cost of $2,000 or more.

Solicitation of funds will be in charge of a group of at least six teams of two members each.

A considerable part of the work is expected to be done by donated labor. Work on drainage and roofing will be started as soon as weather permits.

OVER 1,000 FARMS IN COUNTY AAA LIST

Sign-Up About Half Complete; April 1 Deadline.

Marion county's AAA sign-up of farmers who will participate in the 1947 AAA farm conservation program is more than half complete, according to a report today from Frank G. Montgomery, county AAA chairman.

More than 1,000 farms already are included in the program and within the next two weeks, between 800 and 1,000 more are expected. Deadline for submitting applications for compliance with the 1947 program is April 1. Those farmers who desire to receive AAA payments this year must make application at the county AAA office on East Church street before the deadline, Mr Montgomery said.

After April 1 the county AAA committee will meet with township delegates to pro rate the $89,000 allocated to the county for this year's AAA program among the separate townships.

Farmers receive benefit payments according to the soil conservation practices they follow during the year. Those practices for which a farmer may receive payment include: contouring intilled crops, contour seeding, contour strip cropping, diversion terraces, establishing sod waterways, seeding pastures, green manure crops, excavation of ditches for tile drainage, application of liming materials, application of fertilizers on new seedings or sods and non-grazing woodlots.

URGES REMOVAL OF SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Legislator Levels Accusation at Dr. Hissong.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, March 17—Dr. Clyde Hissong should be removed as Ohio director of education because he advocates that counties lower tax duplicate valuations in their quest for more school funds, says William H. Deddens, Republican state representative from Hamilton county.

Declaring "a cut in the duplicate would be a cut in our tax structure," the legislator said that when Hissong spoke at a Schoolmasters' club meeting here in January "it was called to his attention that counties with low duplicates would get more money under the Daniels-Cramer school bill, now before the legislature, than counties with higher duplicates."

The head of the state school system replied that a cut in the duplicate was "the remedy" for counties with higher valuations, Deddens reported.

In Columbus, Hissong said when informed of Deddens' statement: "I don't know anything about tax valuations in the various tax districts of Ohio in relation to real property values."

He recalled that during the forum period at the Schoolmasters' club meeting, a member of the audience remarked "there was a wide variation in the tax structure."

"I replied," Hissong said, "that I didn't know anything about it and that I had no evidence to check the accuracy of such a report.

"Someone else asked if there shouldn't be more uniformity in tax valuations and I replied that was a problem apart from an attempt to get more foundation funds."

"The bulk of educational costs should be borne locally," said Deddens, who charged that Hissong was "encouraging counties to keep their tax duplicates low deliberately, then go to the state and cry poor....

"His (Hissong's) position as a member of the governor's cabinet should be to see that all tax duplicates are kept close to actual value and that all counties are treated alike.

DAILY LENTEN MEDITATIONS

IN THE CHRIST OF THE CROSS WE GLORY

Today's Text: "Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye." Acts 4:19.

* * *

HUGH LATIMER, one of the great English champions of the Reformation, was tried for heresy after the accession of Mary I, "the bloody Mary." The long disputations and the hardships of his imprisonment he endured with unbroken cheerfulness. His reward was martyrdom. As fires were kindled about him, he cried to his companion: "Be of good comfort, Master Ridley, and play the man. We shall this day light such a candle, by God's grace, in England as I trust shall never be put out."

Thousands of Christians from the earliest years of persecution until now have defied injustice, tyranny, and oppression in the name of the truth of the gospel. Every effort to suppress this message has met with heroic resistance. Martin Niemoeller is but one of the thousands of modern Christians who have really suffered and sacrificed for the faith they profess. We must "obey God rather than men," is the answer of all true Christians when the principles of their faith are in conflict with the authority of government.

REV. RALPH W. KNOOP of Prospect,
Pastor, Prospect Methodist Church.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Anemia

The blood is of such vast importance that whenever anything goes wrong with it, the whole body suffers. One of the most common disorders of the blood is anemia, which simply means a lessening of the amount of coloring matter in the blood, either with or without a decrease in the number of red cells which carry the coloring matter.

There are a good many different types of anemia but the one which affects by far the greatest number of people is called microcytic hypocromic anemia or simple anemia. In these cases the red cells are smaller than normal and contain less coloring matter than they should.

This coloring matter is called hemoglobin and under certain conditions there is an increased need for it, as after bleeding or during pregnancy or periods of rapid growth. Thus, it is at such times as these that this type of anemia is most likely to occur. There is, however, another reason for it. Hemoglobin contains iron and if, for any reason, the body is not supplied with enough of this substance, anemia will result.

The body may not get enough iron because foods which supply iron are not eaten in large enough quantities. Then, too, the iron may not be taken up from the intestines, or both of these things may occur at once.

In treating microcytic hypochromic anemia it is obvious that the first and most important thing to do is to try to find out why the anemia has occurred and correct this factor. Long continued blood loss is perhaps its most common cause and this in turn may be due to some type of tumor in the stomach or intestines which has not been detected.

According to Drs. Bertha L. Paegel and Joseph F. Ross of Boston, the average American diet does not provide enough iron to make up for any moderate loss of blood. The average diet, they think, supplies only about 12 to 15 milligrams of iron a day. A milligram equals about 1/25 of the weight of an average-size grain of rice. A poor diet may provide only from one-half to one fourth this amount. Since only about a tenth to two-fifths of this iron is absorbed even in persons with anemia, the body is actually supplied at best with only five to six milligrams of iron from the foods eaten.

Thus in order to overcome the anemia it is necessary to give iron in the form of some preparation which the doctor will prescribe. These physicians believe that iron salts are effective when given by mouth if the dose is large enough. What are known as ferrous salts seem to be preferred because smaller doses can be employed. It is well known that the iron salts may cause an upset stomach in some cases. The smaller the dose the less likely it is that such upsets will occur.

Anemia is such a threat to health that when it develops no time should be lost in consulting the doctor. He will make a thorough search for causes so that treatment with the proper iron-containing substance can be started at once.

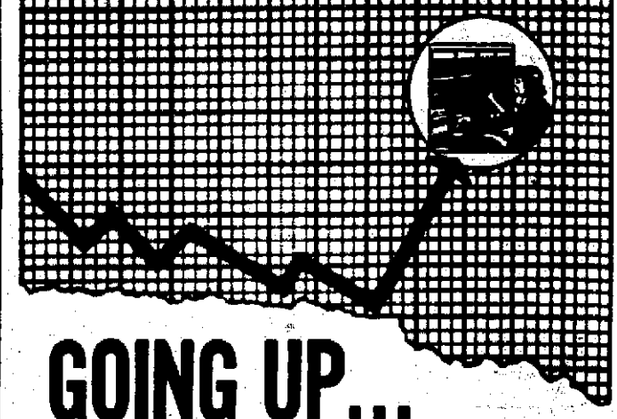
NEW PRODUCTION



GOING UP...

BUT NOT FAST ENOUGH

Yes, production of switchboards, cable, and other vitally needed telephone equipment is increasing. But the increase is not keeping pace with the demand. The reasons for this are generally the same as the reasons why the demand for houses, cars, appliances, etc., cannot be met today and for many months to come. Manufacturers will not predict when orders can be filled, but we pledge our continued best efforts to provide service as soon as possible.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food In a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is all "upset." As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that BSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the BSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, BSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is BSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people BSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of BSS Tonic from your drug store today. BSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

CIO To Sue On Discrimination

Columbus Hotel Refused To Serve Meals to Negroes, Union Charges.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 17 — National CIO leaders said today they would bring suit against the Neil House under the Ohio civil rights statutes for alleged discrimination against Negro delegates who said they were denied table service at the hotel's coffee shop.

The suit was authorized at a "sit-in" demonstration staged Sunday in the coffee shop by 150 delegates to a National CIO Education conference. White and Negro delegates occupied the coffee shop for eight and a half hours in protest against the refusal of seven non-union white waitresses to serve Negroes.

J. Robert Penebaker, assistant manager of the hotel, declared the hotel was in no way responsible for the action of the waitresses. He told newsmen it was "strictly a labor situation so far as the hotel was concerned."

A group of CIO delegates, including several Negroes, who made the hotel their headquarters during their four-day conference, walked into the coffee shop at 7:30 a. m. Sunday, Penebaker said. He added that the waitresses, the only help available, walked off the job.

A CIO statement declared the hotel management's explanation was "difficult to believe when one understands that the hotel management control the policies of the restaurant."

"A test case" was set up Saturday, the CIO statement said. It asserted that four Negro delegates, Philip Weightman of Chicago, vice president of the United Packing House Workers; Dollie Lowthere of New York, education director of the Laundry Workers Division of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers; Boyd Wilson and Mary Davis of Pittsburgh, both of the United Steel Workers, were refused service in the coffee shop. They also took part in the "sit-in" Sunday.

Jack Kroll, PAC director and head of the Ohio CIO council, and Eugene Cotton, assistant general counsel of CIO, the statement said, "pledged full support to the national CIO in pressing the legal suit."

During the demonstration, Rev. Orville C. Jones, educational director of the Ohio CIO council, delivered a sermon in the restaurant, and Allan Haywood, national CIO vice president, made a speech, attacking racial discrimination.

Representative Helen Gahagan Douglas (D-Calif) joined in the demonstration at 7:30 a. m. and before leaving for Indianapolis by train said in a statement to the group: "It breaks my heart to have to leave this restaurant. I wish you all the success in the world in breaking down the barriers of discrimination."

Pleads Self Defense In Vinton Co. Slaying

By The Associated Press

McARTHUR, O., March 17—Sheriff William Brown of Vinton county said today 45-year-old Ward Skinner of nearby Hamden had signed a statement pleading self defense in the fatal shooting of Willard Muncy, 31, yesterday.

Skinner, said the sheriff, is being held in Vinton county jail without charge.

Declining to disclose details of the purported statement, Sheriff Brown told newsmen that Skinner said Muncy, another man and himself went to the farm home of Clyde Barnett earlier Sunday.

Skinner's statement, the sheriff averred, declared Muncy was angry with Barnett and planned to beat him.

The Vinton county officials said Muncy was found mortally wounded on the Barnett property, and that shortly thereafter Skinner surrendered.

PUBLIC OPINION RULE FOR LABOR URGED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 17 — Jules D. Lippmann of Toledo, president of the Textileather, Corp., says "labor must bow to public opinion just as business was forced to, and accept corrective legislation."

One of three speakers on the Columbus Town meeting broadcast Sunday, Lippmann declared this would "lead to the achievement of greater labor-management harmony."

Stating he was not in favor of any punitive labor legislation, Lippmann proposed that congress enact laws to "spell out some sound, comomn sense rules of the game, that will be fair to both labor and management."

On the same program, Allan Haywood, CIO vice president and director of organization, said:

"We want to develop a program which will give our workers a sense of participating in industry. It can be done by developing a sense of labor-management relations, by introducing industry councils on all levels of management, by making workers partners by having them share in the creation of a better product."

Harold M. Fleming of New York, business and financial writer for the Christian Science Monitor, predicted that "the buying power in the worker's weekly pay envelope is going to keep on rising in the next few years.

FIRE ROUTS 44 STUDENTS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 17 — Forty-four Ohio State university men students forced from their dormitories in the stadium by a fire Saturday will be moved to an unused dining room in the Stadium Tower club, University officials said. Loss was estimated at several thousand dollars, including material stored by a construction company to build three new dormitories. Fire Capt. John E. Jordan said sparks from a workmen's salamander apparently started the blaze.

It is estimated that 15 million Americans get their livings from the cotton industry.

Mental Health Best in Cities

Experts Reach Conclusion Following Survey of Semi-Rural County.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 17—Researchers who have just finished the state's first intensive survey of mental sickness in a rural and semirural county have concluded that more rural than city people are struck with mental illa—from slight maladjustment to insanity.

Money marked for research in the 1945-46 legislative session went to make the study in Miami county, which was picked as typical of the small town and farm counties.

Population Is 52,000

Miami county, just north of Dayton, has 52,000 persons living in three small cities, nine villages and in open farm country.

The researchers' major conclusions were that:

Farm life is healthful, mentally, for the small child.

Farm life is unhealthful, mentally and perhaps physically, as people stay there longer.

More insane people are in concealment from public agencies and kept without treatment in the country than in cities.

Insanity probably does not run in families, nor do other mental diseases.

One in five school children has poor mental health.

Boys develop mental ill health more than girls.

Married men have mental ill health more than single men.

School is unhealthful for the slow learner's personality.

Good mental health goes with more education, with city life, with white-collar and skilled employment and student life, in contrast with less education, rural life, unskilled labor and farm operation or labor.

Authors of Report

The report detailing the Miami county conditions was written by Dr. A. R. Mangus, a professor of rural sociology at Ohio State university, and John R. Seeley, a social psychologist of the University of Chicago.

Also aiding in the research were the state's division of mental hygiene, the O.S.U. sociology section of the rural economics and sociology department, and the Ohio Agricultural experiment station.

The researchers went to Miami county last year and gathered its draft board figures, its crime, delinquency and other court facts. They tested third and sixth grade school children's intelligence and adjustment ratings.

Considering Miami as typical of the scores of non-metropolitan counties of Ohio and other states, the research men concluded that its urgent need for mental health services was a fair sample of the need elsewhere.

Yep, That's What It Is

OFFICIAL Russian reaction to President Truman's announcement that the United States intends to do something to keep Greece and Turkey from falling into the hands of puppet governments answerable to the Kremlin was slow in coming. But when it came it was sound.

The official Russian point of view is that the United States is "interfering in the business of other states." That is correct. The United States is already on the scene, doing what it can under cover. If Mr. Truman's proposal clears congress, it will quit operating under cover and come out into the open. The Russians have sized up the situation correctly.

The United States soon may be in direct competition with Russia for the privilege of wielding important influence in Greece and Turkey. It hopes to interfere in a big way with a similar plan of Russia. The only difference is that Russia is interested in setting up police states, while the United States is interested in making sure no more police states get a toehold.

The Kremlin couldn't have come any closer to jumping at the right conclusion: the United States is interfering.

Lake Success, Remember?

THE conference of foreign ministers in Moscow has pretty much obscured the fact that the United Nations security council has been regularly in session, doing spadework on the foundations of the brave new world.

At present there are procedural delays, which are being met with subdued tones and politeness all around, over the United States bid for trusteeship of the former Japanese-mandated islands. When Russia indicated it had no major objections to the trusteeship, some assumed that there would be smooth sailing from then on. Not so, however. New Zealand, Canada, The Netherlands and India want to sit in on hearings on the trusteeship request.

Except to say that he hoped such states would hasten their representatives to the hearing, Senator Austin, the American delegate, made no reference to the fact that two of the countries waited until two minutes before midnight on the final day before filing their notices, although they had since last November to do so.

Despite at least five major parliamentary obstacles and Australia's markedly lukewarm approval of the plan, American trusteeship of the Pacific islands is regarded as certain. But it is not likely to come next week or next month.

Blackmail

THERE is a line of political blackmail that goes like this:

"Capitalism's failure to give people what they want gives Communists a chance to stir up discontent."

Thus, capitalism's inability to produce perfection is blamed for the agitations and connivances of men hoping to produce revolution. By a deft twist of association, the absence of perfection—poverty—is made to seem to stem from capitalism, under which poverty exists. At the same time, capitalism is warned that unless it gives more and more to the people, the revolutionists will increase their activity.

Capitalism's whole basis in the United States is, of course, to give more and more to the people. It cannot eliminate poverty, because it cannot eliminate human beings who are poor. But it can and has done more to eliminate human beings who are poor than any great nation ever did before or is likely to do in the future. It has done this by private enterprise, or call it competitive capitalism, economic democracy, or the American way of life, as some prefer.

It was inevitable that the price of success would be the jealousy of societies which suffered by comparison. The blackmail of Communist agitators who threaten revolution unless the United States abolishes poverty at home, in Greece, in Turkey, or wherever they are busy with their mischief is made no easier to bear by the fact it is a tribute to success.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Atomic Hearings Develop Divergence of Opinion.

WASHINGTON, March 17—An astonishing divergence of opinion developed in the Lilienthal-Clapp case. One senate committee voted 8 to 1 for Lilienthal to head us into the atomic era, while another voted 7 to 5 against his personnel-man Clapp in precisely the same case. The Republicans dominating the public lands committee turned down Gordon Clapp to be TVA head on the ground that the Lilienthal-Clapp administration of TVA was friendly to Communists, while the Republican controlled atomic energy committee approved Lilienthal for the greater job on precisely the same evidence.

This is strange even for inexplicable Washington. From the public lands committee standpoint, you would be forced to conclude the Republicans did not mind a man friendly to Communists handling the whole world of coming atomic phenomena, but did not want a commie friend as head of the relatively infinitesimal TVA, which hardly develops enough power-energy to fill one atomic pill.

Another Strange Incident

Stranger still is the other side of the matter, the atomic energy committee slant. Openly they rejected the evidence brought in by Senator McKellar to show Lilienthal allowed Communists to rest in gleeful peace on the government payroll in his TVA. Republican Chairman Hickenlooper announced flatly the committee had heard "no evidence to support charges that Lilienthal was a Communist or friendly to Communism," (quotes are from an AP dispatch)

You would have to be born yesterday to believe this. Many government departments in the Roosevelt era were known refuges of Communists, including the office of war information, the state department, and I believe TVA. No sin was attached to such friendliness, indeed, Russian appeasement was a professed policy of the Roosevelt administration, and it was the Commies who came out first for Mr. Roosevelt for the fourth term as I recall. Certainly the Communist dominated third parties in New York were then tied up with Tammany, and they were all very pleasantly mixed in together.

Now any man may have his own opinion as to how grievous the sin of this fraternization was, but no man in sound reason can say it was not so—especially a Republican.

Guilty or not, the Lilienthal debate has left a genuine non-partisan question concerning the man selected by Mr. Truman to prepare the transition of our entire civilization into what is supposed to become the greatest age ever known to man. The question is, What is he?

Certain good Democrats, who know many things, tell me Lilienthal is probably a Socialist at heart. He led the greatest governmental experiment in state development and ownership, I presume not unsympathetically, but he said on the stand he has no party affiliation (so did Clapp likewise proclaim his independence.) I think it was Lilienthal's own statement which won the committee, a strong statement in defense of individual freedom and individual initiative. In his new job he will have super-presidential powers or super-congressional authority to develop and distribute atomic energy. He could help, hurt or compete with private business—or he could be really independent.

Sidestep One Angle

Now the Truman senatorial technicians have sidestepped this serious angle in the congressional cloakroom by saying (I do not think this has been published) that if the atom develops, as many scientists fear, into an overall power, congress no doubt will recapture it from Lilienthal. Anyway, they say, he will serve only as long as Truman is President. Thus they deny the more serious implications of the appointment and have tried to make the opposition out to be a one-man affair of Senator McKellar.

Why Truman appointed him can apparently be answered this way:

Lilienthal was originally a Frankfurter man. People in the Democratic know have repeatedly denied to me he is a Baruch man, or that the retired American atomic leader in UN had anything to do with the appointment. They say Lilienthal is still a Frankfurter man, although other Frankfurter men have not been popular around the White House lately.

Truman picked him ostensibly because he had the reputation of a good administrator during the latter days of TVA (the early ones were not so strongly in his favor before congress partly cleaned up TVA) He was the only official who had experience in a development of an incipiently Socialist character like atomic energy.

It was a little out of character for Truman to choose a Roosevelt man for this post, but more out of character for the atomic energy committee of the senate (sans Bricker) to render such a verdict. Lilienthal may make a good administrator. The unions are behind him So are the Roosevelt people, although they are distinctly in the minority. He may get much business support. Many business men in Knoxville were eager to testify for him, and I am told even the monopolistic Aluminum Company of America is on intimate friendly terms.

It may all work out well if Lilienthal proves to be what he says he is now, but if I were a senator, I would certainly keep an eye indefinitely on the advent of the new age of man.

Will They Waltz Him Around Again, Willie?

His views on national issues soft-pedaled since 1944, New York's Governor Dewey is reported moving with unprecedented caution back into the political limelight.

And none of this talk please, Tom being several years older, about a burnt CHILD avoiding the fire.

Mr. Dewey was not a victim of the flames—Besides, his moustache needed singeing anyway.

A lot of things have changed in the past three years, including the White House Hooper rating.

In '44, Dewey suffered, not from over-confidence, but over-matching. It would have been difficult enough to beat the Champ, much less the commander-in-chief.

Of course, traditionally, the Republicans never renominate a defeated candidate. But Dewey is expected to volunteer as an exception.

Moreover, he has many things to recommend him—not the least of which is New York's 94-vote delegation.

Washington's Father Time

By JANE EADS

"FATHER TIME"—that's what they call Ralph E. Gould out at the U. S. Bureau of Standards, where he has been chief of the time section for nigh onto 28½ years, though he's only a young 60.

Mr. Gould and one young assistant test watches and other timepieces for the government and private agencies. They're also working on an electronic development for timing from a 10,000th to one 100,000th of a second.

Perfect timing is maintained in accordance with three standard clocks which Mr. Gould keeps in a vault, 15 to 20 feet below ground level.

In addition to his work at the Bureau of Standards, which Mr. Gould says is keeping him busier than ever before because of the many new watches being made now, is his job as secretary of the Horological Institute of America.

About 2,000 persons are members of the Horological Institute. Besides amateurs and watch collectors, the membership includes students of horology who are seeking certification as professional horologists.

Applicants first send a watch in to Mr. Gould at the Bureau of Standards. When he gets a group of these together he sends them to the institute's examining board.

The board then proceeds to put the timepieces out of order. This they make a thorough business of.

The watches are sent back to the applicants, who have to repair them and send them back to Mr. Gould for testing. Mr. Gould returns the watches, with accompanying reports, back to the examining board.

The board this time tears the watches apart to see what kind of a repair job has been done by the applicant and grades him on a long list of required points. If he passes this ordeal and a written examination he gets the certificate.

Mr. Gould says that a lot of GI's are just about finishing the 18-months course in horology given at various schools about the country and he expects the testing board to have its hands full within the next few months putting watches out of order.

The Shamrock

The shamrock you're wearing on this St. Patrick's day was used as a lucky piece long before St. Patrick's time.

According to Britannica Junior, the children's reference work published by Encyclopaedia Britannica, the shamrock was generally believed in Ireland to be a defense against witchcraft before St. Patrick came to Erin.

"In the bogs and moors where banshees cried and fairies stole travelers' souls, a shamrock held in the peasant's hand was his protection," Britannica Junior says.

An old Irish legend states that St. Patrick first chose the shamrock as a symbol of the Trinity because of its three leaves. Legend also records that with the use of the shamrock the saint drove the snakes of Ireland into the sea.

The old Irish word "seamrog" means three-leafed, and the plant is one of the clovers.

"In Thy Majesty Ride Prosperously" in Cabs

By The Associated Press

SALEM, Ill.—The City Cab Co. takes people to and from churches and Sunday schools for nothing.

Russel Williams, owner of the taxicab firm, said he adopted the free-ride-for-the-faithful plan because he thought it was "a good way to help out the churches."

Five cabs are in service continually between 9 a. m. and 11 a. m. and between 6 and 7 p. m. each Sunday. The drivers are to busy, the boss reports, that they lose track of the number of payless passengers.

Somebody Blundered

By STEWART ALSOP

TEHRAN, March 17—Since the United States seems about to assume much of the responsibility for halting Soviet expansion in the Middle East, it is interesting to know the strength of the opposition. The Russians are highly incompetent imperialists, if their attempt to capture Iran during the last year provides any criterion. Iran has been a sort of laboratory experiment in the new technique of Soviet expansion. And according to competent observers here who watched the whole performance from beginning to end, the Russians bungled the job.

Their worst mistake was their first, when they failed to withdraw their troops by the treaty date. This perfectly overt violation of a treaty tipped the Russian hand, and was a free gift of world support to the Iranian case. But their first fumble was by no means their last.

When the troops were finally withdrawn, the Soviets proceeded to flood Azerbaijan, the northern province which they chose as their first target, with agents. The slogan was apparently quantity not quality. Where 25 good men would have done the job, the Russians piled in somewhere between 2,000 and 5,000 badly trained, poorly organized, undisciplined toughs who swarmed everywhere, making no attempt to conceal their mission, their new authority or their contempt for the inhabitants. According to first-hand evidence, there was not a really able man in the whole lot, with the possible exception of Jafa Pishevari, the puppet premier, and Daneshyan, the army commander.

He "Looked Stern"

Pishevari had spent most of his life in Russia, being trained for his big moment, but he at least claimed to have been born in Azerbaijan. Yet the Russians never made any bones about Pishevari's real status. Promptly at 9 every morning his automobile drew up before the door of the Russian consulate at Tabriz. Every one knew that Pishevari had arrived to receive his orders for the day. At every public function, the Russian consul unhesitatingly took the place of honor, and "sat there with his chest out, looking stern."

Again the Soviet propaganda machine was childishly incompetent. Perhaps the most amusing example is the episode of the Kurdish tribal chieftains. At first, the Soviets' efforts to take advantage of the Kurdish autonomous movement in northern Iran had been meeting with some success. Then some bright propaganda expert decided to clinch the matter with a Soviet propaganda film. Dutifully the leading Kurdish chiefs allowed themselves to be herded first to a reception and then to the film. The motion picture selected was one depicting the glories of the early days of the revolution in south Russia. It was liberally endowed with scenes showing the enraged populace shooting, hanging, stoning or otherwise disposing of the local chiefs. Immediately after the showing, a solemn conclave of Kurdish chiefs was called. In their blood they signed a compact to oppose the Soviets to the bitter end.

Wrong Tactics

Yet not the cleverest propaganda could well have offset the basic Soviet blunder. They were playing for big stakes. Yet they failed to back their investment. They supplied Pishevari and his fellow stooges with arms but only in exchange for wheat, sugar and other goods paid for at fixed low prices with printing press money. There was misery in Azerbaijan, and real discontent. If the Russians had chosen to alleviate the misery and to improve the condition of the people at whatever cost, results not only in Iran but throughout the whole Middle East might have been electrifying. Instead Azerbaijan was treated like a conquered province and stripped bare. The result was the farce of the one-day war, and the ludicrous collapse of the Soviet puppet regime.

Not for the first time, the Russians had no real conception of just how badly they were doing. It is true that the prime minister, the shah and almost all other foreign diplomats were surprised by the suddenness and completeness of the collapse of the puppet regime. But certainly no one was more amazed than Ivan Sahchikov, the Soviet ambassador. On the day that the advance of the Iranian army toward Azerbaijan began, Sabchikov demanded an audience with the shah. The audience was granted at 5 that afternoon. Sabchikov heatedly warned the young shah that unless the army were immediately recalled the most serious consequences might ensue. The shah took a cable from his pocket and showed it to the ambassador. Tabriz had capitulated, and the puppet leaders were hotfooting it for the Soviet border.

Thus ended Round I. Round 2 may well start if the Iranians refuse to sign an oil agreement with the Soviet Union on Soviet terms, after the new Parliament convenes. The attitude of the United States will then become, as in Round 1, of paramount importance.

Humility is the open door to wisdom. A proud and arrogant mind never learns.—Job. 36:10: "He openeth also their ear to instruction."

It is another's fault if he be ungrateful, but it is mine if I do not give.—To find one thankful man, I will oblige a great many that are not so.—Seneca.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The Quickie-Bankery

An eastern bank has inaugurated a drive-in depository. You wheel right into a "banking" and deposit money without getting out of your car. It is a grand idea, but we fear confusion.

* * *

Any day we expect to hear about a depositor driving into a Pig & Whistle and handing over $5,000, while another one drives into a banking lot and demands a hamburger with onions.

* * *

We have already heard about a man who took a salami sandwich in to have the interest calculated.

* * *

The idea of the "Quickie bank" appeals to us. There is something nice and cosy about driving right up to a bank cashier, tooting the horn sharply, and getting immediate service, put or take.

* * *

Indoor banking isn't much fun. The tellers are always well protected behind grilled windows. You never get a feeling of having really contacted them. But approaching 'em by flivver—ah, that could be exciting! Bumping a teller just a little, knocking a little paint off a cashier or even putting a couple of dents in the vice president would give us a lift.

* * *

Then, too, a bank will seem a more democratic institution when a depositor can approach it in the same mood that he approaches a chain-store clerk.

* * *

Steadily the banks, for years in the ice floes, have been defrosting themselves. Gradually they have been warming up to the customers. They have been glamorizing the institutions and rendering more and more service. The Drive-in bank idea is another move in the same direction.

* * *

We think the boys could go further and give the whole business an even more appealing drive-in flavor. How about some frankfurters and beans, some chile or a hamburger with each deposit? Wouldn't a juke box help?

* * *

"Zip-a-dee-doo-dah" as you deposit another hundred would add to the feeling of satisfaction.

* * *

And "To Each His Own" would help when withdrawing a few dollars.

* * *

Furthermore if the banks can help the customer like this in these days when it is so hard to find a place to park to do business, why can't business places in general adopt the idea?

* * *

Oh for a furniture store with a lot into which you can drive and get a stove or piano without alighting!

* * *

Or for a clothing store with a rear window through which the salesman could pass a pair of pants as you drove by in low gear!

THE Glocca Morra song and the "Gort na Cloca Mora" in the James Shephens book resulted in our re-reading this matchless fantasy of the Irish poet. Every time we pick it up we find some new gem that we seem to have missed before. This time it was the philosopher's discussion of bathing.

"Washing is an extraordinary custom. We are washed both on coming into this world and on going out, and we take no pleasure from the first nor profit from the last. Cats are a philosophic and thoughtful race, but they do not admit the efficiency of soap or water.

"Sparrows are a highly acute and reasonable folk. They use water to quench their thirsts, but when they are dirty they take a dust bath and are at once cleansed.

"I often fancy that fish are a dirty, sly and unintelligent people, due to their staying in the water, and it has been observed that on being removed from their element they at once expire through sheer ecstasy at escaping their prolonged washing."

The Long Island railroad is introducing two-decker cars. In those tie-ups when the passengers downstairs keep us awake it will be fun to rap on the floor for quiet.

What Russia needs is an operation to have its suspicions removed.

"I have a used oil burner and would swap for a good piano. M104 Vt."—Yankee Magazine.

Tomcats and Otherwise

By TRUMAN TWILL

An old family friend dropped in late last night to boast about the new daughter he had just seen at the hospital. Daughter and mother were doing well.

This was a first child, and there had been some misgivings about the mother, whose age was closer to 40 than any other number divisible by five. But everything went better than had been expected. Everybody was happy.

The thing that interested us most, as the father of sons, was the way this new father ignored the fact he had become a minority in his own home. Maybe he hadn't thought about it.

The battle of the sexes is eternal, even in such outwardly gentle relationships as those of the home. The tides of the battle ebb and flow. Things are eternally changing, going from bad to worse, or from bad to better.

A man and woman marry and live together in holy deadlock. Then a baby is born, perhaps a boy, perhaps a girl. Immediately, there is a change. The balance of power swings and dips. The deadlock is broken.

A father begets a household of girls and is a man besieged by females. This marks him in many ways. Or, a mother bears a houseful of sons and must learn how to survive in the camp of the opposition.

Much mother-in-law trouble can be traced to disturbances of the balance of power. Father-in-law trouble, though rarer, comes from the same source. Skirmishes in the battle of the sexes always have repercussions.

The ideal condition is a stand-off—a deadlock, with each side claiming the same number of approximately equal combatants. The balance of power is a delicate thing.

So apparently trifling a detail as the sex of a pet becomes important. In the case of the Twinlery animals, a tomcat was offset by a girl puppy, which ultimately will mature and become what mealy-mouths speak of as a lady dog. That was the theory.

Well and good. A standoff is assured between male and female animals. It reflects the standoff between the household's male and female humans. Power is in balance. No one is giving ground.

Then the tomcat goes away on one of his trips. At first, nothing happens. But gradually the girl puppy, having no tomcat to trim her down to size, turns her innate devilry loose on the children. Friction develops. The girl puppy enlists the sympathy of fellow females when she's slapped down. Power begins to slip out of balance. Too many females.

(If anyone sees a 12-pound, coal-black tomcat with a three-inch scar back of his left ear and 17 white hairs on his chest, send him home. It would have cost us the usual rates to insert this ad in the want-ad pages, so we used the visit by the new father as an excuse. What we want is T. Manville Twill, the tomcat, back where he belongs.)

President Truman Hopes For Change in Weather

By The Associated Press

KEY WEST, Fla., March 17 — President Truman extending his rest at this naval submarine base into its second week, hoped for a change in the weather today

A tropical downpour of rain during the morning and overcast skies during the remainder of yesterday made it impossible for the Chief Executive to get his daily sunbath.

He spent last night in the commandant's quarters talking over the radio debut of his singing daughter, Margaret, after telephoning her at Detroit to congratulate her on her broadcast with the Detroit symphony orchestra.

In the absence of urgent developments which could require his return to Washington unexpectedly, Mr Truman likely will remain over here until Wednesday.

Assembly To Eye Budget As Session Is Resumed

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, March 17—Comparing notes on constituents' reaction to the administration's $532,942,420 budget was expected to take precedence over official legislative business when Ohio's law-makers resume sessions tonight.

This home reaction when summed up may determine the attitude of legislative leaders, particularly those of the house, toward attempts to cut the budget by possibly more than $20,000,000

The rural conservative house leaders were disappointed greatly that Gov. Thomas J. Herbert saw fit to recommend spending the entire estimated revenues for the current two years on current operations Particularly were they disappointed that the executive recommended increased expenditures of a permanent instead of temporary character.

WRITES MR. ROBERT JORDAN, COLBY, MASS.

Advises every sufferer from Rheumatic—Arthritic—Sciatic—Neuritic Pains to try Muscle-Rub.

Here's the true story of a man who took treatments, used all kind of remedies for his sciatic, neuritic pains without being helped in the slightest degree. He tried several different treatments, many different medicines, all of which did him no good. He couldn't work. Life was misery for him.

Then one day he saw an advertisement of Muscle-Rub—the doctor's prescription—and in desperation bought a bottle. He used it as directed and in 3 days the pains were relieved and Mr Jordan was back on the job.

We wonder if we advise every rheumatic sufferer to try Muscle-Rub for that pain relief. Get a bottle today at Mooney & Cooper and All Drug Stores.

Remember, Muscle-Rub is sold on the money back guarantee. If only half a bottle doesn't relieve your druggist is authorized to refund your money.

auspices of the Communist party.

Friedman contended he was fired as a result of a "witch hunt."

The high court refused him a review.

Here is how the Lewis-coal miners matter works out:

The court's decision requires that within five days after its mandate is issued Lewis must withdraw a notice to the mine workers that the union's working contract with the government is ended.

If not, it will cost the United Mine Workers $3,800,000.

When upholding the contempt convictions of Lewis and the UMW for disregarding a U. S. district court order against last fall's coal strike, the high court reduced a $3,500,000 fine against the union to $700,000.

It said, however, that the original amount of the fine should be collected if Lewis did not withdraw the order.

A $10,000 fine against Lewis was upheld.

The effect of today's ruling is to bar the door against a new walkout on March 31.

Lewis ended last fall's strike by ordering the miners to work until March 31.

Under normal procedure, the supreme court's mandate (order in connection with the contempt decision) would not have reached the lower court until March 31. That would have left five days during which the miners could have remained away from the pits without being subject to the full amount of the original fine.

Eight Teams Qualify for Cage Finals in Columbus This Week

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, O., March 17—The eight qualifiers in Ohio's high school basketball championship finals draw for week-end opponents today, and the best any of 'em can pull out of Commissioner H. W. Emswiler's hat is a tough opening day foe.

There are no soft spots the rest of the way in the Thursday-Friday-Saturday battle royal at the state fairgrounds coliseum, from which will emerge the kings of the 213 class A and the 966 class B high schools in the Buckeye realm.

Defending champion, Middletown, making its fourth straight bid for the laurels, led the class A contingent and was considered a steady favorite to repeat its 1946 conquest although its defeat-scared record is the worst of any of the finalists. Middletown won the title in 1944 and lost in the finals of 1945 to Bellevue, before coming back to win last year.

The Middies served notice Saturday they were heading down the title trail again when they swept aside Dayton Fairmont 55-45 to annex the Dayton regional crown.

Findlay's Record Good

Findlay, which has the cleanest record of the class A aspirants, dropped Defiance, 40-31 in Saturday's regional at Bowling Green for victory number 21 in 23 starts.

East Liverpool stacked up a surprisingly heavy margin against Marietta in the New Concord finals, 47 to 38, although Marietta's Dick Williams led the point-getters with 13.

Ashtabula overcome a 17-14 halftime deficit to blast Cuyahoga Falls along with the regional title.

Over in class B, at the Kent tourney, Columbiana clipped Lowellville by a single point, 35 to 34, for its 23rd victory against one defeat (by class A Salem). The Clippers, behind Lowellville 0-8 at the outset, rallied in the last minute to win their 66th victory against four losses over the last four campaigns.

Corning's high scoring quintet, nailing its 28th victory against eight defeats, turned in an upset 47-43 conquest of Columbus Rosary, which only the day before had wrecked Frazeysburg's 30-game winning streak, led 9-3 at the quarter 27-16 at the half, and 36-30 entering the fourth period, but Corning surged down the stretch. Jerry Jones, who scored 31 points in Corning's 54-42 win over Procterville Thursday night, contributed 17 to the upset of Rosary.

New Knoxville Wins

New Knoxville, northwestern Ohio class B entrant, had no trouble getting by Gibsonburg 49 to 28 with Len Shull scoring 19 points for the losers.

Plain City, which had been beaten only by Columbus Rosary in 28 starts, was fairly easy prey to Phillisburg at Springfield, 39 to 27. In fact Lee Bohlender with 16 points, and Hugh Haines, nephew of Jess Haines, former Cardinal pitcher, scored more than the entire Plain City crew, Haines got 13.

The won-lost records of the tourney finalists, with their offensive and defensive point totals and averages:

Williams Practices Left Field Hitting

By The Associated Press

TAMPA, Fla., March 17—Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox has his sights set on another .400 batting average this year and since he regards the "Williams shift" as a barrier to his goal, he is practicing left field drives to break it up.

Admitting he was "a bit bull-headed at times" last year, the slugging outfielder now says his persistent refusal to hit to left then probably cost him the American league batting title.

Ted estimated he lost about nine hits directly because of the shift, enough to enable him to have beaten out Mickey Vernon for the crown. As it was, he finished with a .342 and 11 points behind the Washington first baseman.

FORM ASSOCIATION TO ACT IN BEHALF OF SCHOOL ATHLETES

Toledoan Backs Effort To Block Reduction of Eligibility Age to 19.

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., March 17—Formation of the "Association for the Advancement of the Youth of Ohio," with the primary aim of defeating proposals to lower the eligibility age of high school athletes from 20 to 19 years, was announced today by Grant Murray, white-haired vice president of Toledo's board of education.

Murray, long a critic of the Ohio High School Athletic Association, two years ago led a winning fight before the Ohio legislature to oust secret balloting in the association. Later he was the leading figure in the scrap to bring back spring football practice to the scholastic field.

Officers of the new association are Murray, president; Virgil E. Cramer, chairman of the Ohio Senate education committee, chairman of the board; Frank Ceckler, former president of Massillon's Tiger boosters club, vice president, and Jack Mollenkopf, Toledo Waite coach and former president of the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association secretary.

The association president, in a statement, said:

"All resources at our command are being marshalled to defend the youth of Ohio against the vicious 19-year-old bill sponsored by Floyd Rowe, director of physical education, Cleveland public schools."

Rowe recently submitted to H. W. Emswiler, state high school athletic commissioner, a petition asking a referendum vote by principals to drop the eligibility age limit on athletes from 20 to 19 years. The petition carried more than the 50 signatures necessary to make the referendum mandatory.

Murray, contending that the state law decrees free education with full privileges must be given pupils until they are 21, said schools would be deprived of state aid funds if privileges were curtailed.

Caledonia Wins Junior Title

Caledonia High school followed up the winning of the county league basketball tournament championship with the junior high tourney title Saturday night on the Morral floor with a 46 to 35 victory over the Waldo juniors. The Donians advanced to the final round by whipping LaRue 31 to 25 in an afternoon contest. Waldo won over New Bloomington in the other semi-final game 37 to 32. In a preliminary to the championship game New Bloomington defeated LaRue 43 to 41 in the closest contest of the whole tourney.

The Donia juniors clinched the championship early in the final game as they jumped into an early 19 to 6 first quarter lead and although the South Siders came back strong they were never able to close up the first stanza gap. In the afternoon win Donia again won the game by a one quarter advantage as the LaRue youngsters outscored the champs in every session except the second. An 18 to 5 advantage in this session gave the Donians the victory.

Trade Talk Involves Keltner

By The Associated Press

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., March 17—Trade rumors were flying again today in the camp of the Cleveland Indians after Manager Lou Boudreau benched third baseman Ken Keltner to give Eddie Bockman a shot at the hot corner.

Boudreau explained the move by saying "Keltner has earned a rest and it's time I had a look at Bockman's third basing," but there was speculation that Keltner will figure in a trade to obtain pitching and outfield help.

Keltner himself does not want to be traded. He's content and is confident he'll have a good year.

The Indians were here today for an exhibition game with Seattle of the Pacific Coast league. Al Gettel and Bryant Stephens drew the mound assignments.

Bob Feller drew an overflow throng of 23,550 fans in Los Angeles yesterday but was rapped for five runs and eight hits, including a three-run homer by Andy Pafko, as the Chicago Cubs trounced the Tribe 8 to 1.

ST. MARY CAGERS WIN TOURNEY AT TIFFIN

The Shamrocks, representing St. Mary High school Hi-Y, defeated three Lima basketball teams at Tiffin Saturday afternoon to win the North Central District Y.M.C.A. tournament, Class C. The Shamrocks are city champions. Teams from Marion, Lima, Fostoria and Bellevue competed in the tourney.

The Marion quintet swamped one team and shaded two others Saturday. They beat Lima Reformed Church 40-35 in overtime for their first win; avalanched Lima St. Luke by a 53-28 score in the second; and in the deciding game took Lima Wesley Methodist church 28-27.

The Shamrocks were tired in their final game, led through most of the contest and froze the ball whenever they got a chance.

They will go to Columbus next week for the state finals.

SEMI-PRO FOOTBALL LEAGUE IS FORMED IN DAYTON MEETING

Marion Team Representatives Attend Session; Six Squads Are in Loop.

Managers and owners of semi-professional football teams in Ohio and Indiana met at Hotel Biltmore in Dayton over the weekend to lay plans for the setting up of a semi-pro league.

Cities represented were Marion, Dayton, Lockland and Mendon, all in Ohio, Sheridan, Ind., and Indianapolis, Ind.

The name of the league will be the Intra-State Conference and besides the cities which are now represented teams from Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Cincinnati, O., have indicated an interest.

Three from Marion

Sid Tennant, president; Paul Eshman, vice president, and Marion McKeever, secretary-treasurer of the Marion club were the representatives from this city.

The Dayton team which will be a member of the conference is the Rockets. Dan F. Ryan, club manager and Alex Rado, coach, represented that team at the meetings.

Robert Whiteneck and L. B. Heine represented the Lockland entry which is backed by the American Legion in that city. Lockland is about 10 miles north of Cincinnati and according to these men will draw probably the biggest crowds in the league.

Jerry York, manager and coach of the Indianapolis outfit, represented that city. The club carries the banner of 7 Up All-Stars and last year was undefeated in 10 games, winning the mythical Indiana state championship from the St. Joe A. C.'s of Ft. Wayne.

Harold H. Myers represented Sheridan. The team is sponsored by Sheridan merchants and followed a nine game schedule last season winning seven games, losing one.

Small Town in Loop

Mendon was represented by Lowell Schwiederman, player-coach. The outfit was organized late last season and won one of three contests. A small community, Mendon plans to draw on Lma, Van Wert, Wapakoneta, St. Marys and Celina for players and its home crowds.

Three offices were set up for the league. Ryan was elected president, Tennant vice president, and a secretary-treasurer will be chosen at the next meeting in Dayton April 20.

Various operating rules were set up for the league and a more complete set of rules and by-laws will be authorized at the next meeting.

Job Shifts by College Cage Coaches Soon To Get Started

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK, March 17—Now that the basketball season is almost over, you can look for two off-season developments . . . first is a lot of job-switching by college coaches (they already have begun to follow the example of football tutors), and second is salary troubles in the pro leagues . . . Ken Loeffler, St. Louis Bombers coach, pointed out the salary situation the other day . . . "The boys already are talking about how much they'll ask next season," said Ken. "It will be quite a problem. In baseball you can have an $80,000 a year man because everybody knows his batting or pitching wins games. In basketball, when you have a $10,000 man playing with a lot of $3,000 men, they just won't pass to him and he can't win the games . . . It just emphasizes that basketball is a team game; you have to have balance on your team and you have to have balance on your payroll."

Walter Brown, Boston Garden boss who witnessed the recent European hockey championships, says he may give a few Czechs a chance on the Boston Olympics next winter. One of them is Jaroslav Drobny, Davis Cup tennis player . . . We always thought the mark of an amateur hockey player was that he wouldn't accept a check . . . Sam (Sugar Bowl) Corenswet, a New York visitor, boasts that southern basketball is on the upgrade and that before long every big southern college will have a full time Casaba coach . . . Owner Rex Larkin and trainer Tom Berry disagree as to whether Poplar FDR, the two-year-old which Berry is training at Orlando, Fla., is a better colt than his full brother Poplar Byrd, who was the big money-winning pacer last season.

AUGIE GALAN MAY END RED'S HUNT FOR HITTING OUTFIELDER

Gets Homer and Two Singles in Four Times at Bat Against Boston.

By The Associated Press

TAMPA, Fla., March 17—Augie Galan may be the fellow the Cincinnati Reds have been looking for all these years in their search for a hard-hitting outfielder.

The Reds dropped a 6-4 decision to the Boston Red Sox here yesterday but handsome Augie brightened the afternoon for Cincinnati partisans with a long home run and two sharp singles in four times at bat.

The homer, in his first time at bat in the second inning, was a long drive that carried over the right field fence.

Galan, a switch hitter, was acquired from the Brooklyn Dodgers last winter. Although bothered by knee injuries, he batted .310 for the Dodgers in 1946.

However, this spring the veteran outfielder reports he's thrown away his knee braces and has been cavorting like a colt on the training field.

The Reds dropped yesterday's game despite the fact they outhit the American League champions 13-9. The Bosox got three runs in the first inning with the big blow Bobby Doerr's homer with a mate aboard.

Marshall College Wins Intercollegiate Title

By The Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, March 17 — A combination of stamina, speed and a balanced scoring attack gave the Thundering Herd of Marshall college, Huntington, W. Va., the National Intercollegiate (NAIB) Basketball championship for 1947.

Coach Cam Henderson's Herd clinched the title Saturday night with a 73 to 59 victory over a good Minnesota State Teachers college team of Mankato.

The Arizona State Lumberjacks, Flagstaff, defeated Emporia (Kas) State College's Hornets 47 to 38 for third place.

Three Marshall players, Hall, Andy Tonkovich and Gene James, were named to the All-Tournament first team. Irvin Leifer of Eastern Washington College of Education, Cheney, and freshman Bill Litchfield of Emporia State were the other All-Stars.

Sees Room in Palestine For Jewish Survivors

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O., March 17—Palestine could absorb the entire 1,500,000 Jewish survivors of Hitlerism in Europe, Reuven Dafni, a Palestinian pioneer and a former British army paratrooper, told an Ohio conference of the United Jewish Appeal Sunday.

The conference, attended by 310 delegates, opened a spring drive to raise funds for the joint distribution committee of the United Palestine appeal and United Service for new Americans.

Terrorism in Palestine would cease immediately, Dafni said, if Britain "opened the gates of the Jewish homeland to uprooted Jews" from Europe.

He prepped Bucyrus gridders at the time Vic Dorris was coach at Marion Harding. They played football together at State.

He left Bucyrus to enter the Navy and last season was backfield coach of the Miami Seahawks.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

"I AM so glad," Olina told me, "that you are going to have a physician see her. And it is especially fortunate that you are going to take her into your own apartment. With medical authority back of you, you will be able to control her visitors. Maman will be so relieved."

There appeared to be a certain significance in her words, and her next sentence explained it.

Noel Knows

"You see," she said. "Noel knows Mary is in the city, and by now he will know that she is with you. He will be here as soon as he can get here, which ought to be about half an hour."

"Then, I ought to—" I began uncertainly, but she interrupted me quickly.

"What I have to tell you will take but a minute," she said. "And Maman thinks you ought to know it."

"Of course," I told her, and she spoke rapidly and concisely.

"While Maman was down here," she began, "Dad, who had secured the name of the plane from the sanitarium authorities, phoned the airport and found out that it had landed at La Guardia some time ago. He deduced at once that Mary had come to you, but he did not telephone you because Maman had asked him not to phone her, and you know he does not lightly disregard any request of hers.

Devoted to Wife

"I know," I said, for we all know Philip Veritzen's devotion to his regal wife.

"However," she went on, "he did telephone Noel, but, strangely enough he did not tell him his suspicion that Mary was here. He told him of the disturbing message he had had from the sanitarium and of his discovery that the plane she had boarded had landed at La Guardia this morning. Then, having upset the poor lad completely, he told him to call back in fifteen minutes, saying he probably would have news of Mary's whereabouts by then."

Her tone subconsciously reflected a criticism of her stepfather which I knew she would not willingly have betrayed. But if I had been my young son, or his cousin, I think I would have called out: "'At a girl, Olina,'" and in all probability have given her nerves a severe shock.

"Of course he was waiting for Maman," she went on, "and when she came in and said Mary was down with you, I really thought, at first, he was going to have a seizure of some kind. But Maman painted so black a picture of Mary's nervous condition and also gave him so vivid an account of her condition, and her dread of his anger that you could see him calming down and getting sorrier for Mary by the minute.

Hasn't Forgiven

"That doesn't mean he has forgiven her," Olina interrupted herself hastily. "But when Noel called up and talked to him again, his tone was very different from what it was the first time. It was exceedingly mild. He told Noel that Mary had come to you, that Maman had seen her, and that Mary was in an exceedingly nervous condition. And he told Noel to come to our apartment first, before he tried to see Mary, and that he would have more news for him then

"Of course he does not dream that I am down here," she finished, "so I shall have no chance to tell him of Mary's physical illness But Maman told me to say to you that she thinks his anger is softening, and I hope when he learns that Mary is physically ill, it will vanish."

Maman Will Telephone

"Now I must go," she said. "I will have Maman telephone you later on, so that she can tell Dad, herself, about your sending for a physician, and taking Mary down to your own living apartment. One last suggestion, if I may offer it. Don't make Mary's illness trivial. Let Dad think she is in pretty serious condition if you can get Dr. Twitchell to back you up."

"He'll back me me up all right," I said, with a reminiscent little smile as I thought of the many times Dr. Twitchell had been compelled to stretch his medical ethics for my father, in war time.

And then, with a little wave of her hand, Olina walked toward the elevator, and I hurried back into my study.

"Now," I said, "we'll telephone Dr. Twitchell."
